Tempo Likely To Increase Next Year

U.S. Plans Slow Withdrawal Of Troops From Viet Nam

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. troop withdrawal from South Viet Nam will be a slow draining-off process whose tempo is likely to rise next year.

The gradual pull-back of the nearly 15,000 American military men now there will be keyed to what U.S. officials believe will be a steady strengthening of the South Vietnamese Army's ability to stand on its own feet.

Another indispensable condition—as underscored by a White House announcement Wednesday night—is internal political stability in Communist-beleaguered South Viet Nam.

The special mission headed by

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, returned satisfied that the Saigon government's repression of Buddhists has not so far eroded the morale and fighting effectiveness of the South Vietnamese army.

It seems apparent that McNamara and Taylor believe that the war can be won with the regime of President Ngo Dinh Diem in power.

But the White House statement, based on their report to President Kennedy, was clear notice to the Diem government that this country expects it to halt its repressive measures—and that U. S. pressure toward that end will continue.

By fixing the end of 1965 as the target for winding up the main U.S. military effort in South Viet Nam, the Kennedy administration has put itself on a limb it has avoided in the past.

There are strong indications that actual withdrawals will be carried out without public announcement.

The first 1,000 Americans to be pulled back, probably within the next few months, will be siphoned from a wide range of military activities in South Viet Nam.

There will be no pull-out of entire units, at least at first.

The first men to be brought home probably will be maintenance technicians, clerks, and similar rear-area types.

The helicopter units which have been flying South Vietnamese troops into battle against the Red guerrillas, and the officers and men who have been training South Vietnamese soldiers, often under fire, likely will be among the last to leave.

Indications are that those remaining after the hoped-for winding-up of the main U.S. military task in Viet Nam may be specialists training South Viet Nam's air force.

While the South Vietnamese army is taking on more and more of the planning, operations and technical responsibilities with its own U.S.-trained people, the Vietnames air force is somewhat farther back in development. There still is a shortage of pilots, and these take a considerable time to train.

McNamara and Taylor found that the commanders and staffs of South Viet Nam's nine divisions are increasingly exercising functions on their own, with U.S. advisers able to stand aside to a greater extent.

They also found that the biggest remaining need of the South Vietnamese forces was development of a large enough supply of trained non-commissioned officers and technicians.

The most striking gain over the past year, they learned, was the quality and amount of intelligence that South Vietnamese are getting from the peasants.

This was attributed to a growing feeling of security among those who have been resettled in fortified villages, relatively safe

Two Persons Hurt In Road Accidents

An East Palestine bread truck deliveryman and a young Minerva area motorist were treated for injuries received in two distinct two-vehicle highway mishaps Thursday afternoon. The Minerva area man was cited along with two other drivers.

Jerome Morrison, 41, of 251 Alice St., East Palestine was treated at Youngstown South Side Hospital at 5 p.m. after a collision between the Schwebel Baking Co. truck he was driving and a tractor-trailer on Route 18, about a mile west of Route 45, at 3:20 p.m.

Morrison, thrown from the truck to the pavement, suffered multiple abrasions and contusions of both thighs and bruises of the forehead, both knees and elbows.

The Canfield barracks of the State Highway Patrol reported Morrison was eastbound on Route 18 when the semi driven by John B. King, 27, of Winfield, Tenn. made a left turn in front of the bread truck. The Palestinian was unable to stop and his vehicle struck the rig, heavily damaging the bread truck.

King was cited by state police for failure to yield the right of way.

Deposed President In Costa Rica

Victory Claimed by Honduras Junta

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—A few rockets of resistance were believed holding out in the little banana republic of Honduras today despite victory claims by military leaders who ousted President Ramon Villeda Morales in a bloody revolt.

The deposed president arrived by plane in Costa Rica Thursday night, landing at the Pacific Coast city of Punta Arenas. He was accompanied by Modesto Rodas Alvarado, his candidate for president in the Oct. 13 election.

The Honduran military overthrew Villeda Morales Thursday, apparently to keep Rodas Alvarado out of the presidency. As president of Congress for the past five years, he had worked constantly to bring the virtually autonomous army under civilian control.

Despite the military junta's victory claim, an army communique indicated civil guardsmen in two towns in western Honduras—Santa Barbara and Ocotepeque—were still loyal to Villeda Morales. A broadcast demanded their surrender.

Twenty civil guardsmen were reported killed and 50 wounded in a four-hour battle in downtown Tegucigalpa. The army reportedly suffered two dead.

The coup, coming eight days after a military coup in the Dominican Republic that ousted President Juan Bosch, caused new concern and repercussions throughout the Americas. It was the fourth such military takeover in Latin America this year and occurred despite a U.S. warning to Honduran military leaders that the United States opposes unconstitutional seizure of power.

The other coups were in Ecuador in July and Guatemala in March. Last year the military overthrew elected governments in Argentina and Peru.

Diplomats believe the next overturn could occur in Venezuela, where a terrorist campaign against President Romulo Betancourt might be used as the pretext by the military. Brazil is considered another trouble spot.

Canada Dock Workers Go On Strike

MONTREAL (AP)—Approximately 3,800 longshoremen in three St. Lawrence River ports walked off the job at 8 a.m. today, a step expected to have an immediate crippling effect on Canada's efforts to move wheat and flour purchased recently by Russia. The strike is intended to enforce demands for higher pay.

Seventeen six-man gangs began picketing entrances to Montreal Harbor as early as 6:30 a.m., but a few night gangs continued working to the deadline.

The strike started at midnight

Hurricane Lashes Haiti With 140 m.p.h. Winds

FASTEST GUN IN THE NAVY — In only four seconds, all the shells (87 of 'em) shown being loaded, left, could be fired from this Navy A-4 Skyhawk jet. The three pods under the plane are not fuel tanks but a new aerial weapon system developed by Hughes Aircraft. It consists of three 20-mm cannon capable of firing armor-piercing shells at a rate of 12,600 rounds a minute, making it the Navy's "fastest gun." Right, a tank is blasted during a test on the Mojave Desert ranges of the Naval Ordnance Test Station at China Lake, Calif. A burst as short as one second against a target equals the destructive force of a 4,000-pound object dropped from 1,000 feet. Black specks are expended shell casings, falling from the jet's cannon by the hundreds.

Heavy Loss Expected In Stricken Nation

Still-Vicious Storm Thrashes Toward Cuba and Bahamas

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Flora hammered Haiti with 140-mile-an-hour winds for nine hours today, isolated the Negro nation from the world and thrashed on toward eastern Cuba and the heart of the Bahama Islands.

When the wild night finally ended, defenseless Haiti still was being pounded by torrential rains and destructive floods almost certainly were raging down her mountainsides.

Sad Story Expected
A sad story was expected to come from this thickly-populated tropic country when communications are re-established. Forecasters were worried also about what is yet to come.

Forecasters said there is no threat to the U.S. mainland, about 500 miles away, for at least two days, if at all.

The night-long battle with Haiti's mountains took some of the punch out of Flora, most vicious hurricane in two years. Its top winds had fallen from 140 to 115 miles an hour when it left Haiti behind and moved into the narrow windward passage.

It still was a well-organized storm, however, and once through the passage and into the open Atlantic could quickly regain strength.

A slowing in the forward movement of the hurricane left some doubts as to when it would get through the mountains of Cuba's easternmost Oriente Province and into the British Bahamas.

The big U.S. Navy base at Guantanamo Bay, a thorn in the side of Fidel Castro's Communist island, was expected to come through the storm in good shape. "Giltmo" Being Blasted

A hurricane's winds whirl in a counter-clockwise direction, which means that Guantanamo, just west of the storm center's path, is being blasted from the northeast, and on that side "Giltmo" is shielded by a mountain range.

But Cubans might not fare so well. The National Weather Bureau of Cuba warned residents of Oriente to take "extreme meas-

2,500 Is Goal For X-Ray Visit

The Salem City Health department and the Ohio Department of Health hope to have 2,500 persons get free chest X-rays when the mobile unit is in Salem Monday through Thursday.

The unit will be in front of the Strouss-Hirschberg store on S. Broadway and will be in operation from 3 to 9 p.m. Monday, 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. on Tuesday, 1 to 7 p. m. Wednesday and 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Thursday.

According to city health department officials, this year's goal is the highest ever. Three years ago 1,950 persons were X-rayed in a three-day period.

X-rays will be given to anyone 18-years-old and over. Local officials are urging older persons especially, to join in this year's drive.

Woman Held In Fatal Mishap

Auto Kills Three Children on Sidewalk

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 36-year-old mother of six sons, who police said drove a car that ran onto a sidewalk and killed three school children, faced three counts of second-degree manslaughter today.

Mrs. Rose Lukerson of Cleveland was being held in City Jail without bail. Police said she had been drinking prior to the accident.

Police Prosecutor Richard F. Matia said manslaughter charges—one for each death—would be filed against Mrs. Lukerson today and that she would be held in County jail until a preliminary hearing is scheduled, probably Monday.

Killed Thursday were David Williams, 7, Lynette Shields, 7, and Ronnie Marie Luke, 8, all of Cleveland.

Admitted to Forest City Hospital in serious condition were Rosa Williams, 8, sister of the dead boy, and Carlton Garner, 7, of Cleveland.

The five children, pupils at Charles H. Lake School at Hillock Avenue and East 93rd Street.

Mishap That Killed 8 Still Probed

Driver In Fatal Crash Stunned by Tragedy

"I don't know what happened," says a stunned truck driver who escaped injury in a traffic accident that claimed eight lives.

The memory of the tragedy on a 60-yard downhill stretch of two-lane Ohio Route 7 Wednesday night "will be with me the rest of my life," said Virgil E. Hatcher, 27. His steel-laden truck smashed two automobiles.

A six-ton coil of stainless steel tumbled from the trailer, crushing one car and killing its five occupants on their way to a young people's church meeting. The truck, out of control, then slammed nearly head-on into another car, the Highway Patrol said.

One person in the second car died in the wreckage; another a few hours later and a third, William S. White, 33, of East Liverpool, at about 11 a.m. Thursday in City Hospital at East Liverpool. Crushed to death in the first WASHINGTON (AP)—Joseph Valachi, the talkative Cosa Nostra mobster, is posing a new dilemma for federal officials—where to hide him for the rest of his life when he stops talking.

They must find a secluded nook in their prison system where the 60-year-old informer can live out his days safe from vengeful underworld killers who reportedly have placed a $100,000 bounty on his head for spilling the secrets of organized crime.

A Bureau of Prisons official admitted, "If we had to take custody of Valachi today we honestly wouldn't know where to put him."

For a while, Valachi will stay at the District of Columbia Jail, in a private cell away from other prisoners, with a television set for company. One guard keeps an eye on him.

He has been at the jail between appearances before the Senate Investigations subcommittee, which resumes its questioning Tuesday. He most likely will remain there for a few weeks, a Justice Department source told a reporter.

Valachi will testify before federal grand juries and talk with Canadian law enforcement officials.

JFK Cites Equalities In 'New South'

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Apparently unimpressed by Gov. Orval E. Faubus' criticism of his civil rights program, President Kennedy told an Arkansas audience the "New South" will contribute to greater equality of opportunity for all Americans.

Faubus introduced the President Thursday at the dedication of Greers Ferry Dam near Heber Springs. He advocated states' and individual rights and said it is a constitutional wrong to abridge these rights "even though the effort to abridge or destroy may masquerade as civil rights."

The President, sitting five feet from the governor, didn't react to the remark. Nor did he answer Faubus in his speech dedicating the dam, part of a system of hydro-electric and flood control dams in the White River Basin.

But an hour later at the Arkansas Livestock Exposition in Little Rock, Kennedy told an integrated audience that equal rights for all citizens is "the grand objective."

Pact on Space Weapons Near

U.S., Russia To Ban Nuclear Satellites

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—A new East-West agreement in principle to outlaw nuclear-armed space satellites will be translated soon into a public U.S.-Soviet pledge, U.S. diplomatic sources predicted today.

"Agreement on policy... (against) nuclear weapons in orbit" was announced by Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home Thursday night as they wound up a week of talks.

Gromyko has an appointment with President Kennedy next Thursday. He is expected to talk with Kennedy and Rusk in Washington about this and other possible follow-ups to the limited nuclear test ban treaty, plus items of direct concern between the United States and Russia.

The Big Three foreign ministers put off for later negotiation the earth-bound disarmament plans on which they have been unable to agree. These plans, including a proposed East-West nonaggression pact and observer exchange, got tangled up with the thorny Germany-Berlin issue and have yet to be sorted out.

But in a joint four-sentence communique, the three saw potential accord in space.

Noting that Kennedy and Gromyko in their U.N. General Assembly speeches last month endorsed a ban on orbiting nuclear weapons, they said, "There is agreement on policy which it is hoped can be given appropriate form in the near future."

U.S. diplomats said today they expect the United States and Russia will soon follow through with a formal public declaration against orbiting nuclear weapons. They predicted it would not be difficult to work out an agreed wording.

Columbiana Sets Annual Event Wednesday

College Night Is Scheduled

COLUMBIANA — Annual College Night, sponsored by the Parent Teacher Organization, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the high school auditorium.

Purpose of the program is to assist parents and students in the task of choosing a college, university, nursing school or technical school to attend after high school, according to D. W. Bailey, superintendent of schools.

The 1963 College Night Program will give approximately 350 students from Columbiana, East Palestine, Leetonia and Lisbon an opportunity to learn more about the schools of their choice for training beyond high school. The program calls for a short assembly meeting in the auditorium, where representatives of 13 colleges, universities and special schools will be introduced.

Two 40-minute conference periods will follow, at which time the representatives will give parents and students first hand information on the respective schools. After the conference periods, students and parents will be able to talk personally with the representatives.

All parents and students interested in securing first hand information about the schools listed below are invited to attend.

The following schools have indicated that they will send representatives: Bowling Green State University, Heidelberg College, Kent State University, Miami University, Mt. Union College, Ohio State University, Ohio University, Ohio Wesleyan University, Westminster College, Youngstown University, Youngstown State University, Youngstown Hospital Association School of Nursing and Salem Trade and Technical School.

College representatives, school officials and guidance counselors from the four schools will be guests of the PTO at a 6 p.m. dinner at South Side School.

Death On the Highway

The tragic death of eight persons in Columbiana County's worst traffic accident Wednesday night on Route 7 near Williamsport had a sobering effect on even the hardiest individual.

Crushed and mangled bodies of four children and four adults had to be extricated from two automobiles that were demolished by a runaway steel-laden truck. The driver of the truck, so shaken by the event and the scene that met his eyes when he climbed down from his cab that he was unable to talk coherently to state patrolmen, will never forget, especially, the smashed bodies of the three young girls and the boy of 8 who were on their way to a church service.

There was no opportunity now for him to retrace his steps. The precious minutes were gone that he might be able to ascend the hill and start over again, this time to descend the steep grade in full control of the heavy vehicle.

But, according to the State Patrol, what happened to trucker Vernon Edgar Hatcher of Quaker City was what occurs too frequently with many drivers — truckers and motorists alike: They travel too fast for road conditions, not reckoning properly or expertly enough for hills and curves. Then the inevitable happens: An accident that usually leaves dead or dying along the highway or in twisted pieces of metal that seconds before were shiny automobiles. Now there was only silence . . . or agonizing cries and moans from parents and youngsters who had been carrying on a pleasant family conversation.

Accidents like the one on Route 7 are not planned. They are caused by carelessness, a numbness to reality by the man or woman behind the wheel that death lurks at every turn or corner, whether it be a county road or a superhighway.

This is why safety officials, and newspapers the country over, appeal constantly for more discriminate driving habits by all motorists, yet at times like this it seems like words — spoken or written — form a mocking, hollow echo that comes back with the inevitable resounding crash of metal and splintered glass.

Any Time They Want to Save

One after-thought belongs with public discussion of a tax cut when federal spending is outdistancing Federal income.

All appropriation bills originate in the U.S. House of Representatives. Only Congress can appropriate money. The president of the United States — John F. Kennedy in this instance — is no more responsible for federal spending than his daughter Caroline. Yet, because budget requests and recommendations are handled by the White House, it is common practice to make it appear that the chief executive is in charge of fiscal policy; that he is responsible for deficit financing.

This could be true only if Democratic party discipline were absolute and President Kennedy were in absolute control of party policy. He isn't, and the Democratic party is split wide open on all policy matters, including government finance.

Thus, it is wholly unfair to make it appear in criticism of deficit financing and tax-cutting in the face of deficit financing that this is the fault of President Kennedy.

He has no power of decision over money matters.

He can do nothing but recommend. Members of the House of Representatives and Senate can accept or reject his recommendations. They can raise and lower government spending at their own discretion.

It is unfair, unrealistic and hypocritical to assign all blame to the White House for something the White House cannot control. Spending and taxing are the sole responsibility of Congress.

No Vandalism!

Law enforcement authorities in several Columbiana County communities have issued early warnings against Halloween vandalism.

In fact, vandalism—which is out and out destruction of property—will not be tolerated at any time. Sometimes, though, during the approaching season, boys become over-exuberant with Halloween shenanigans. The officers' warning at this time is to temper those probable outbursts.

Three separate groups of young men are presently on probation after severe court punishment for cases of vandalism dating back two months. In one instance, a bystander was injured by a hurled object.

Let's hope that warnings will help to avoid future trouble.

Brother Browder

By Truman Twill

The FBI is pumping one-time Communist chief Earl Browder for inside dope on the showdown between the Russian and Chinese Communists, it says in the paper.

Browder, now 72 and a philosopher like his old competitor, socialist Norman Thomas, gets a kick out of this because it's the first friendly contact he ever had with the FBI. Its agents used to tail him like an enemy, which is what they considered him to be.

He considered himself to be something like that, too. It was not until the third act of his career as head Communist in the United States that he found out what was wrong with him. He was having growing pain. He then became Communism's critic. It couldn't have turned out any other way, the man was rational. That's why he couldn't go along with Stalin, a fanatic.

Stalin's successor as Russia's strong man can't go along with the fanatical Chinese Communist. Khrushchev is rational and the Chinese Communists aren't.

KHRUSHCHEV is rational because he wants to conserve what is worth saving in a world beginning to look good to him. Chinese Communists, still in the midst of revolutionary chaos and floundering desperately in a mish-mash of failure, have nothing worth saving. They want to destroy.

Browder had things he thought were worth saving, so he rejected the revolutionary preaching that it was necessary to destroy the world so Communists could rebuild it according to their copyrighted plan.

To borrow that threadbare thing about old generals never dying, just fading away, old revolutionaries never die, either. They turn conservative.

If they hang around long enough, the world beats a path to their door to hear them tell the old tales about what happened that time the pigs got into the banker's garden; it was exciting while it lasted.

In a calmer era of living, it was all right for young people to upset the apple cart. If they survived this experience and other experiences of the same nature they would simmer down and own apple carts of their own one day.

This was a natural progression of thinking. Young people went through mental stages, and it was to be expected that in the early stage they would feel rebellious and itch to rearrange all the social and political furniture.

This was thought of as "feeling their oats." Their coltishness had a certain ebullient charm about it, like being sweet 16. It was hard to bear, but no one thought it was ominous.

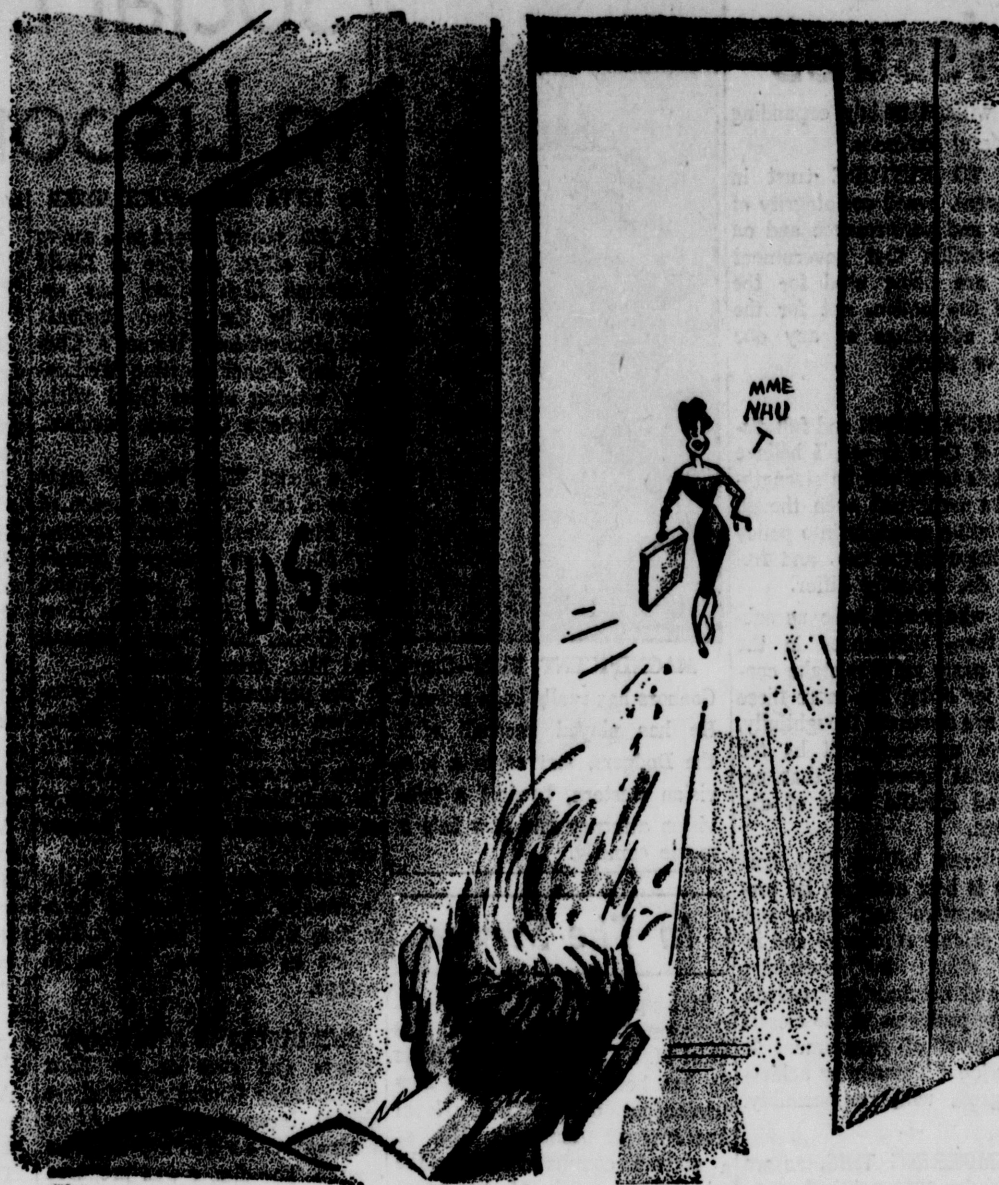

THEN CAME Communism, to give a sinister name and meaning to a natural phenomenon. Also an international organization, political significance and conspiratorial intrigue.

The revolutionaries went and got themselves a spare shirt, and all of a sudden it didn't seem like a good idea to divvy up shirts.

And now Brother Browder is a consultant for the FBI.

If people want to know what's silly about Communism, he's the fellow who can tell them. He, himself, in person.

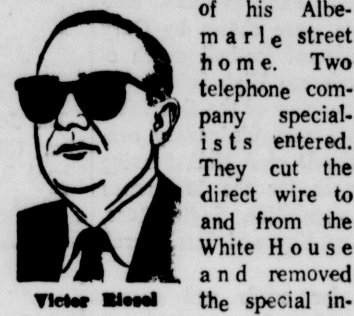

The Soft Sell

Goldberg's Life Mission

By VICTOR RIESEL

On the morning the U.S. Senate confirmed Arthur Goldberg as a justice of the Supreme Court, there was a knock on the door of his Alhambra street home. Two telephone company specialists entered. They cut the direct wire to and from the White House and removed the special instrument.

Victor Riesel

It now is exactly one year since Justice Goldberg actually took his seat on the high bench. And many have asked whether the link between the White House, the Kennedys and the political world actually was cut that morning.

The answer becomes trebly significant because of reports that within a year there will be three Supreme Court resignations — those of Justice Black, Justice Douglas and Chief Justice Warren. The latter may leave sooner than the nation or the White House expects.

As new justices are named, Mr. Goldberg's philosophical impact on the court and the land will be greater.

Especially so, since the link with the White House and the grim outer world of politics really was cut for all time the morning that the special phone was recovered by the repairman.

THERE ARE those who doubt this. They have said that Justice Goldberg would like some day to run for the vice presidency of the United States. There are those who have said he is bored with the court's inactivity. This is not so.

Justice Goldberg has permanently exchanged the "excitement of the moment for the excitement of the ages." He has turned student again. He labors hard. Recently one of his friends, the soft spoken national mediator, Dave Cole, asked the justice how the work load on the court compared with the work load in the Labor Department. The justice replied that he is working far harder now.

Cole said: "But that just is not possible. You were working night and day in the Labor Department."

Goldberg said: "I still am. The difference is that as secretary of labor I made up my mind and that was it. Now I make up my mind and I still must try to make up the minds of eight others. And that is the hardest work I've known."

Reports of Justice Goldberg's "restlessness" spring from erroneous reaction to his subtle sense of humor, a gentle puckishness. Among his friends he has turned the jest on himself frequently.

HE LOVES to talk of himself as the "doorman" at the court. As the newest member, he is the last to walk out of a judicial conference. Because the justices are loaded with confidential papers, the newest judge holds the door so the others with "seniority" can make their way out.

He enjoys talking of his lack of staff. Where he, as secretary of labor, used to direct thousands, he now has but an office staff and law clerks.

Then he used to bounce around the cavernous Labor Department office. Now he must sit quietly and listen for hours during open court sessions and "you can't even put your feet on the desk," he says with a grin.

He also says swiftly that nothing in his career as labor advocate, as counselor to millions, as the nation's top labor lawyer, as the man who could walk in unannounced on the President, ever gave him the sheer thrill he received when he put his hand in the special drawer on the bench and withdrew a dog-eared copy of the U.S. Constitution on which was written: "The property of Oliver Wendell Holmes."

Certainly, the link between the political world and Justice Goldberg has been cut. His former cabinet colleagues have discovered that. He has ruled against the government in cases affecting Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Attorney General Robert Kennedy.

IN OTHER CASES Mr. Goldberg has handed down decisions against important influences in fields which could help a politically-minded man. These decisions came in cases affecting the Stock Exchange and the TV networks.

Will Justice Goldberg move to the right or left? These are semantics enclosed in a crystal ball. I do know that Supreme Court Justice Arthur Goldberg will move in that direction which will protect the rights of the individual.

"Human dignity must be protected," he said recently to a friend. "Government, no matter how strong, must be limited in its relationship to the individual. I see this as a mission in contrast to the Communist doctrine of supremacy of the state."

"The role of the court is to vindicate individual freedom. The dignity of the human is not to be subordinated to the state power."

What do we mean when we say democracy versus communism? It's not the goods we produce. It's the fact that an individual can have freedom of conscience — and of the courts.

"In the Soviet Union they talk of proletarian justice. Does that mean they are protecting the rights of the working man? Of course not. Our concept is different. The court as I see it must protect the rights of the individual."

That is Justice Goldberg's direction. He sees his appointment not as a life sentence but as a life mission.

Trading With Foe

By DAVID LAWRENCE
In war time there usually is a "trading-with-the-enemy" law. It forbids trade with enemies of this country.

Today, there is a war on between the United States and the Soviet Union but, because it's called a "cold war" instead of a hot war there are no laws David Lawrence at present which spell out exactly what trade can or cannot be carried on with the Communist countries. It's handled largely by the executive branch of the government under discretionary powers.

The issue has arisen specifically in connection with the possibility that 100 to 200 million tons of wheat in the United States may be sold to the Soviet Union. In Congress, there is opposition to the idea, for, while a "cold war" doesn't involve battles between armies of this country and Russia, the fact is that American soldiers have lost their lives in fighting the guerrillas sent into South Viet Nam by the Communists.

Likewise, large numbers of American troops stand guard in Korea and in Berlin against Communist armies. Not many months ago, a missile base was established in Cuba, and an estimated 15,000 Russian troops still remain on the island. Nobody would object to selling food or almost anything else to the Soviet Union if there were no "cold war" going on today. The American people would be glad to develop friendlier relations with the Soviet people. But should trade restrictions be removed without bringing the "cold war" to an end?

Sen. Karl Mundt, R-S.D., in a speech to the Senate a few days ago, pointed out that it isn't just the sale of wheat that is involved. If wheat is sold, then sale of other products, not necessarily agricultural, will be pressed.

SEN. MUNDT urged President Kennedy to call a conference here of all the countries of the free world which are engaged in exporting either agricultural or industrial materials. The purpose would be "to formulate a workable, consistent pattern of trade with the Communist bloc countries, and to determine the impact that a program of expanded trade with Russia, Cuba, Red China, and other Communist countries would have upon the Mutual Assistance and Foreign Aid programs to which the United States is today by far the most significant and sizeable contributor."

The South Dakota senator pointed to some of the realities of the trade controversy as he recalled that recently the national legislature of West Germany "voted against the export of oil pipe to Communist Russia," and he added:

"Be it said to their credit, they faced the facts of the cold war. Unhappily, our British cousins, who sensed a chance to 'make a quick buck' in this sort of trade, then picked up the contract the Germans rejected, and shipped the oil pipe to the Communists."

SEN. THOMAS DODD, D-Conn., suggested to the Senate that "we are soon to be officially informed of a radical shift in our foreign policy," and added:

"Without any approval from Congress, in fact in the face of expressed congressional disapproval, our government is to sell to Russia subsidized wheat at a price substantially below that paid for it by the American taxpayer. This would be, in effect, an initial subsidy to Russia of more than $100 million.

"Only a few weeks ago this would have been unthinkable, as it was in 1961 when Congress passed Public Law 87-128 which states the sense of Congress that subsidized agricultural commodities should not be made available to the Soviet Union or to countries dominated by the U.S.S.R."

SEN. JOHN SHERMAN COOPER, R-Ky., also cited the legislative acts bearing on trade with the Soviet Union and asserted that "it's certainly the declared policy of the Congress that subsidized agricultural commodities — such as the wheat in question — shall not be sold, or made available, in any way, to the Soviet Union."

He said that "before the administration embarks on a new course" he believes it "should undertake a review of our entire trade policy and that of our allies with the Soviet Union, and present its conclusions to the appropriate committees of the Congress."

HISTORY CERTAINLY repeats itself — for it was the refusal of certain of the free countries to stop their trade with Hitler or to join the embargo on oil to Mussolini's Italy which helped the Fascists to arm against the free world in the 1930s.

The American people would gladly trade with and help to feed the peoples of the countries behind the Iron Curtain if there were a definite end to the infiltrations, the aggressions and the subversive activities in the West which are being financed and directed by the Soviets.

It was St. Paul who wrote: "Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink; for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head."

The American people, however, like to feed the enemy after a war is over. They did so in 1919 and again in 1945.

Herbert Hoover's great work on relief in Central Europe is an unforgettable example of the magnanimity of the American people toward an enemy which had caused grave losses to this country and its allies.

A free flow of food and machinery to Communist nations could readily be developed but only when the "cold war" has been definitely ended by the government in Moscow and mutual trust has been established.

Today is Friday Oct. 4, the 277th day of 1963. There are 88 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1957, the space age began when the Soviet Union launched its first Sputnik. The satellite orbited the earth at an altitude of 560 miles and at a speed of 18,000 miles an hour.

On this date In 1777 the British defeated the Colonial forces in the Battle of Germantown, Pa.

In 1824, the federal Republic of Mexico was proclaimed.

In 1910, Portugal became a republic when King Manuel was forced to flee as the result of revolution.

In 1943, Gen. Douglas MacArthur had broken Japan's grip on British New Guinea during World War II.

In 1945, Pierre Laval went on trial as a traitor to France in World War II.

ANN LANDERS
About the only way a fellow saves any money nowadays is when he forgets to pay a bill.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a 14-year-old girl, and a little nutty. If you can explain why I am like I am, I'll be grateful forever.

I'm going steady with the best-looking kid in the school. Freddie has everything a girl could possibly want. He's smart, handsome, popular and he has flipped over me. But the problem is my crazy feelings. Sometimes when we are together I'm bored and wish he would go home. After he leaves I miss him like crazy and I wish he'd come back.

Last week we were at a flea-hop (that's a dance) and there were two fellows there that looked good to me. I kept wishing I wasn't going steady with Freddie. When I saw Freddie dancing with another girl, and holding her close, I almost jumped out of my skin.

Why am I hot and cold, low and high? Do you think I'm mentally ill?—BRENDA

Dear Brenda: The high-low, hot-cold routine means you have not yet matured emotionally.

At 14 you should not be going steady with anyone—no matter how dreamy. It's unwise and unhealthy for a girl your age to have a heavy emotional investment in any one fellow.

Unwanted Children

Dear Ann: My husband and I bought a home near the high school because we have three children of high school age and I was sick and tired of driving kids back and forth. Unfortunately, the house has two extra bedrooms.

Now it seems my husband's sister wishes to unload her high school girl on us because they live on the other side of town and the bus line does not run within seven blocks of them.

In addition to this, my own brother wants us to keep his two sons weekdays only, he said because we live near school and his wife must have an operation which will put her off her feet for three months.

Bluntly speaking, my own three teen-agers are more than I can handle and I don't want the responsibility of three more. My husband says it's up to me. My mother warns if I refuse I'll be branded by the family as selfish and mean. Help, please.—ON THE SPOT.

Dear Spot: Rooming and boarding high school children is an enormous responsibility, not to mention the additional work.

If you do not want to do it, be as blunt with them as you were with me and say no. This makes more sense than knuckling under for fear of what the relatives will say or think.

Voice of Experience

Dear Ann: I just read the letter in your column today from the mother in a TB hospital. Since I

West Branch District Picks Up 6 Families On Border

Mahoning County School Superintendent W. C. Smith is expected to meet soon with administrators in the Sebring and West Branch School Districts to discuss solutions to the problem of six families whose seven children attend Sebring Schools but live in West Branch District.

The discovery of the betwixt-and-between families followed a survey of the Haney property area and the dead-ends of Tennessee and Oregon St. extensions by the Mahoning County Engineer Department. This is the area in which the disputed families reside.

Sebring Superintendent of Schools Donald Wise said today the families are merely victims of circumstances and are not at fault in anyway.

The awkward situation arose from the 1960 division of the old Mahoning Local School District into a 142-square mile West Branch District and a mile and a half square Sebring District, making Sebring an island in a huge West Branch sea of land.

Confusion over the location of the west boundary came up this year when James Billingsley elected to become a candidate for the Sebring Board of Education, but the engineer's survey disclosed that he lived in the neighboring school district.

Mahoning County Prosecutor Clyde W. Osborne, in a recent opinion asked by the Mahoning Board of Education, claims that Billingsley cannot serve on the Sebring Board and that his children, now attending Sebring schools must pay tuition.

Tech School Data Sought By 5 Boards

Five Columbiana County Boards of Education agreed Thursday night they want more information before they agree to a proposed State Department of Education survey relating to the establishment of a vocational program in Columbiana County.

Twenty-three persons, including board members and administrators from Columbiana, Leetonia, Lisbon, East Palestine and Wells-ville school districts, discussed various vocational high school plans at a dinner meeting at Wellsville High School. Host superintendent Lowell Myers presided.

The group plans to hold another session within the next two weeks to discuss further the proposed vocational plan and the survey, which would involve schools and the business community.

The board members also talked over mutual problems including curricula, bond issues, operating levies and other financial concerns.

The five boards will meet again at Lisbon's McKinley School.

It was the first strike called by the International Longshoremen's Association since 1936.

Negotiations between the association and the Shipping Federation of Canada, with Montreal Judge Rene Lippe as mediator, were to resume at midmorning.

One source said some slight progress was made Thursday night. But he said progress was coming far too slowly to raise hopes of getting the men back on the docks quickly.

Canadian grain men hope to move some 60 million of the 210 million bushels of Russia-bound wheat through the St. Lawrence before the river freezes. But a reliable informant in Ottawa said the government would not intervene directly in the dispute yet, preferring to risk some disruption in shipping rather than upset the collective bargaining process.

Joseph Hill, 42, of Cleveland, a friend of Mrs. Lukerson, was held without charge by police as part of their investigation of the tragedy and the events proceeding it.

Police said Mrs. Lukerson had been drinking with friends at the home of Miss Gloria McKinney, 24, for about an hour prior to the accident. Tests at police headquarters immediately after Mrs. Lukerson's arrest showed a large amount of alcohol in her system, police said.

Officials make a point of noting that Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, a strong critic of Diem's brother Ngo Dinh Nhu, and Mrs. Nhu, was fully aware of the McNamara-Taylor report, its recommendations and conclusions.

Nobody in the Defense Department and the military services expects that the end of 1965 will see the total end of the Viet Cong threat. Sporadic attacks and ambushes are expected, perhaps for years to come.

But the United States will consider its goal reached when the government of South Viet Nam can exercise control over the great bulk of its territory and its 14 million people.

Mrs. Dolores Stockman, president, presided. Membership chairman Donald Lewis reported on the membership drive.

Guests included Gladys Debolt of East Liverpool, GOP county chairwoman; Mrs. Ruth Crawford, East Liverpool, and Joe Savage of Steubenville.

Summitville Barn Burns To Ground

SUMMITVILLE — Fire of undetermined origin leveled a barn on the farm owned by Garvin Pitts located two and one-half miles west of here early this morning.

Richard Pitts, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pitts of County Line Rd. in Carroll County, was awakened from his sleep at 2:40 a.m. by the bright reflection of the blaze which had already completely enveloped the 40 by 80 foot structure.

His parents, sleeping in a room on the other side of the home, had been unaware of the fire.

Richard went to the home of his brother, three-fourths of a mile away, and called the Franklin Township Volunteer Fire Department, which arrived on the scene by 3:10 a.m. By the time firemen got there, it was impossible to salvage the structure or any of its contents.

Besides the small equipment and tools usually found in a barn were 2,800 bales of hay, 200 bushels of wheat, 600 bushels of oats, one combine, one hog and 100 chickens a few of which were able to escape.

Damage totaled $8,000 according to Fire Chief Paul Crawford who said that the loss was partially covered by insurance.

State Issue No. 1 to be voted upon in Ohio Nov. 5, was endorsed by the Columbiana County Forests and Parks Council, at its meeting Thursday evening in the County Extension office in Lisbon.

The issue continues the one-cent cigarette tax voted in 1955 and which will expire if not renewed. Funds would be used for education, conservation, parks and recreation development.

Tours by three groups in October of the Beaver Creek Park were announced and discussed.

I. S. Sahli of the Beaver County Planning and Zoning Commission, Beaver Falls, Pa., reported on plans for acquisition of land on the Pennsylvania side of Beaver Creek, which, when acquired, will be used for park purposes.

United Junior High Beats Sebring 26-0

Eighth graders George Bowman and Lester Syx each scored two touchdowns Thursday night at the Golden Eagles' field as United Local Junior High romped to a 26-0 victory over Sebring Junior High. Bob Sonegre kicked two extra points.

United tallied six points in the first quarter but failed to score in the second, giving United a 6-0 margin at halftime. United's offense rolled into gear in the third quarter boosting the margin to 20-0 in the third quarter and to 26-0 at the end of play.

The miniature Eagles meet the little Beavers next Thursday night before their big contest with Salem Junior High.

United coaches are Bill Thorne and Len Daugherty.

Pottery Company Resumes Operation

Production returned to near normal this morning at the Homer Laughlin China Co. in Newell, W. Va., after striking laborers decided late Thursday night to remove picket lines that had disrupted the dinnerware firm's operations for five days.

Meanwhile, Homer Laughlin management and officials of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters set up a meeting this afternoon to review the discharge of five employees that grew out of the dispute and later became the principal issue in the stoppage.

Richard Adams, president of Local 141, announced following a mass meeting of district potters late last night that pickets would be removed "immediately" from the Ohio approaches to the Newell and Chester Bridges.

Pickets moved to Ohio territory Wednesday night after a West Virginia circuit court order issued a few hours earlier on the company's petition banned further picketing at the plant.

Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

Dear Heloise: I'm a former customer engineer for a big typewriter company.

I would like to tell you housewives who have typewriters, how to clean the hood (or the painted surface) whether it be wrinkle finish or smooth.

Any good household ammonia will do the job.

We just dampen a wash rag with some household ammonia and start wiping. . . .

Immediately all of the newspaper print, fingerprints and carbon paper smudges will disappear. Wipe until completely dry and until all the fumes leave and that's all there is to it. Then just look at your pretty new type writer cover.

GEORGE PETERS.

It works! Beautiful job. HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When making desserts, if you gals hate to stir gelatin until it's dissolved, use your mixer or blender on low speed. Completely dissolves all the little granules.

ing up a banana with a fork or a blender and then putting the peanut butter in and mashing some more. . . .

One can add a little bit of salad oil to it, if you like the taste of peanut butter and want it without any other flavoring.

I have also added orange juice to peanut butter and put it in my blender. It's fantastic.

If you ever want something tart just try grating (mashing or blending) a piece of apple and then mixing it with the peanut butter. This is really out of this world.

Anybody got any more ideas how to vary peanut butter? (Kids live on it and we oldsters like it, too.) If so, send answers to Heloise.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: For mothers who have small children, here's a helpful hint for use in the bathroom:

After using up your plastic bottle of liquid detergent, pour in some bubble bath.

One can just squeeze the bottle and out comes the bubble bath. It's not only handy but, since it is plastic, eliminates the possibility of broken glass. For added attraction, paint a picture on the bottle or add a decal.

NETTIE MASON.

DEAR HELOISE: For a delightful grapefruit breakfast . . . the night before, cut the grapefruit, salt it and put on a tray in your fridge. The salt penetrates into the rest of the grapefruit, giving it a delicious flavor instead of remaining just a "layer" on top.

DO EVERY DRAWER this way. Don't try to do them all in one day. If you get one chest done. . . have a cup of coffee and enjoy yourself. (Forget the mending bag, because two months from now you will be going through it, and will throw half of it in the rag bag because you will have found you can do without it!)

Ah, it's wonderful to have some clean bureau drawers in the bedroom! You will have a wonderfully clean conscience and peace of mind being able to open a drawer, pull out a bra (with working hooks), hose (that match) and slips that are the right length to just put on and wear without tying a string around the waist, etc! (I know I have.)

em quick. Either be mad, or in a throwing-away mood. If you aren't . . . wait until that day comes. Could it be today? At least go clean one chest. You will love this method.

HELOISE.

LA Headed Home With 2-0 Lead In World Series

Dodgers Rip Yankees 4-1

Houk Predicts NY Will Still Triumph

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Strange are the workings of the minds of men.

Soit-spoken Walter Alston, his Los Angeles Dodgers riding the crest of a 2-0 lead in the best-of-seven World Series, was afraid to talk about winning for fear of losing.

Fierce, forceful Ralph Houk, his proud New York Yankees still winless after two games with the Dodgers at home, insisted today his team will win the series although the next three games are scheduled for Los Angeles.

In the visiting clubhouse at Yankee Stadium after the Dodgers had whipped the Yankees 4-1 Thursday on top of a 5-2 opening triumph, it was suggested to Alston that the Dodgers' chances of a World Series triumph appeared a lot brighter with two games in the bag.

Must Win 2 More Says Alston
"It doesn't mean a damn thing unless we win two more," replied the cautious manager. "I remember back in 1956 we took the first two from the Yankees and they came back to beat us. No, anything can still happen."

Some 50 yards away in the Yankee clubhouse, Houk sat chewing away at a cigar contemplating answers to the questions hurled at him by the reporters.

"I'll tell you one thing," snapped the hard-bitten manager of the Yankees. "We haven't thrown no damn towel in."

The reply was in answer to a question how it felt to be behind two games to none and despite the ungrammatical expression the listeners got the drift.

"It would be foolish for me to say a team that had a 2-0 edge didn't have the advantage," added Houk. "But I still say we'll win it. We've been two down before and we won. And we've won four in a row many times before."

There is one major difference, however. The Yankees never have lost the first two games at home, and come back to win.

Up to now as the teams prepare for the third clash here Saturday, it has all been the Dodgers.

The National Leaguers have flashed the stronger pitching and better speed, as advertised, and have provided the heavier hitting and more spectacular defense, as unadvertised.

It was Johnny Podres' turn to take the pitching laurels Thursday as the veteran left-hander stifled the Yankees with six hits until he left because of weariness after 8-13 inning. Ron Perranoski, the relief ace with the golden left arm, came in from the bullpen and shut the door on the Yankees after allowing a run-scoring single.

The Dodgers scored early, pouncing upon young Al Downing for a 2-0 lead in the first inning. Singles by Maury Wills and Jim Gilliam and the first of two doubles by Willie Davis, helped along when Roger Maris slipped and fell, produced the runs.

While Podres was mowing the Yankees down with precision, the Dodgers added to their total, scoring in the fourth on Moose Skowron's home run and again in the eighth when Tommy Davis followed Willie's two-bagger with a booming triple to the left-center field fence.

Mark My Word

By MARK W. MILLER

A couple of days ago, Coach Don Clario expressed his desire about entering Salem into a football league.

He pointed out that if players have some goal to shoot for, such as a league championship, they will try a little harder.

Only the mythical Columbian County championship is at stake for Salem, and it doesn't mean a whole lot because there is no loop to determining the crown.

Coach Clario immediately ruled out any intentions of ever entering Salem in the "All-American Football Conference" which was established last year.

SOME FANS WOULD still like to see the Quakers play a slate which includes Alliance, Massillon, Niles, Steubenville, Warren, Cincinnati, Roper Bacon, East Liverpool, Canton McKinley and a few other top notch teams.

Most of the above schools are twice the size of Salem and a couple are three times larger. Frankly, outside of longtime county rival, the Quakers haven't any business playing any of those giants.

As it is, Salem is playing a schedule in which all of the schools it meets, with the exception of two, have a bigger enrollment.

The Senior High School lists 841 pupils. Only Wellsville, with 554 and Geneva with 540 show a smaller number.

Lorain, with 1,600 youngsters, heads the group on the Salem football slate of high schools with more students. The rest include Boardman, 1,400; Cleveland Lincoln, 1,400; Canton Timken, 1,300; Farrell, Pa., 1,200; East Liverpool 1,000; Akron North, 1,000; and Ravenna 900.

JIM POTTS ROLLED the high individual game of the season 289, while leading his Knights of Columbus team to a 4-0 victory over Elks No. 1 in the Service League at Timberlakes Wednesday.

He started his frame by making 19 straight strikes. Potts then knocked down nine pins, followed up by making the spare and finished the game with another strike.

The youthful bowler carries a 179 average. He finished with a 642 series Wednesday, which included games of 198 and 155.

A certified bowling instruction school will be held at the Timberlakes Oct. 24-25. It will be one or four instruction courses held in Ohio this year.

AT THE RECENT "pass, punt and kick" clinic held at Reilly Stadium, 97 boys received instruction from Salem assistant football coaches Don Bennett, Mike Guappone, Marlin Davidson and Bob Carbaugh.

Varsity players Larry Earley, George Begalla, Larry Reader, Lloyd Adams, Gary Starbuck and Chuck Joseph also helped out with the teaching.

A week from Saturday, the annual PPK program will be held at Reilly Stadium. The Salem Park Commission and Bud Shaffer Ford are sponsoring the event.

TROPHIES WERE awarded to the tournament winners at the recent Salem Golf Club final roundup.

Winners and runners receiving awards for the June Handicap event included (Class AA) Ed Pukalski and Gordon Scott; (Class A) George Ironson and Guy Lehman; (Class B) Dr. Rudy Holzbach and Robert Hartsock; and (Class C) Bob Pierson and Elliott Hansell.

Rudy Shuster walked away with the Class AA club championship and July medal play low gross tournament trophies. Ed Pukalski took the low net in the July event.

Other awards in the club championship event went to Class AA runnerup Gordon Scott; Class A winner and runnerup Howard Jesko and Dr. Clarence Hartsough, respectively; (Class B) Chester Roof and George Perrault; and (Class C) Ed Thomas and Homer Logue.

LLOYD LINDQUIST was voted president of the Flying B golf League for 1964 at the loops final field day recently.

Other officers elected were Dick Baugton, vice president; Keith Laughlin, treasurer; and Cy Alberts, secretary.

Trophies were given to Superior Wallpaper, the loop champion, and to Shamrock Lanes. Ed McLain received an award for posting the low gross 76.

IN THE FIRST three weeks the National Professional Football Hall of Fame at Canton has been in operation, more than 10,000 persons have filed through the turnstiles to view the story of the game from its beginning in 1894 to today.

The NFL has quashed an informal proposal by the rival AFL that the two pro leagues meet in a post-season football championship playoff clash.

The AFL plans to make a formal proposal to the NFL for a playoff in 1964.

The American Hockey League will enter the sports scene Wednesday, beginning its 28th season, with three games scheduled. Opening night festivities will have Pittsburgh at Buffalo, Cleveland at Hershey and Baltimore at Rochester.

Salem Motorcycle Club To Hold Races Sunday

The Salem Motorcycle Club will hold its final hillclimb of the season at its clubgrounds, located five miles south of Salem on County Road 411, Sunday at 2 p.m.

Races will be held in five classes, with at least six entries to make up a class. Trophies will be presented to the winners at the conclusion of the event.

The rider with the fastest time of the day will receive an engraved trophy clock.

Larry Hetrick of Columbus and Jim Drake of Malta still hold the fastest time for the hill, 2.55 seconds. The event is AMA-sanctioned.

Joe Grba, athletic trainer at Hardin-Simmons University for the past 15 years, is the father of one-time big league pitcher Eli Grba.

Quakers Fall Behind In Statistics As Grid Season Enters Halfway Point

By MARK MILLER
News Sports Editor

In almost every department, the Salem High School Quakers have fallen behind in statistics and it appears, as the football season reaches the halfway mark, that the Quakers will have to do a complete reverse if they expect to catch up by the end of the campaign.

The fact of the matter is, that only two teams on the Quakers' schedule are experiencing losing campaigns, while East Liverpool, a Salem Nov. 1 opponent, is unbeaten in four starts.

Salem trails its opponents in total offense by 308 yards. The Quakers have picked up 487 yards rushing and 274 through the air, Cleveland Lincoln, Ravenna, Lorain, and Ferrell, Pa. have made 749 yards on the ground and 320 passing.

THE QUAKERS' DEFENSIVE unit has been exceptionally alert five of seven. Salem has bobbled the pigskin nine times but only lost three.

Larry Earley has been averaging 31 yards for 17 punts, which is a shade better than the opposition booters who have been kicking at an average of 30 yards.

Fullback George Begalla, who got off a pair of 50-yard kickoffs against Farrell, has an average of 44 for 11 boots. His effort is better by four yards than the opponents who have a 40 yard averse for 16.

THE SENIOR VETERAN also is Salem's leading ball carrier. He has lugged the pigskin 53 times for 301 yards. Mike Derenzo has picked up 95 yards in 32 carries, while Dyer Scott has rushed for 94 yards in 25 attempts. Salem has attempted 42 passes and completed 19 for 45 per cent. The opposition has thrown 30 aeri-als and connected 16 times for 53 per cent.

The four schools that have played Salem thus far averaged 22 points a game, while piling up 90 points. The Quakers have averaged 10 points, based on 43 points.

Duke Tackles Maryland In 1st Bowl Game

USC Battles MSU Tonight; OSU, Pitt Play Saturday

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Southern California's Trojans, deposed by Oklahoma as the nation's No. 1 college football team, open their comeback bid tonight when they face Michigan State in Los Angeles.

The game, advanced to Friday night to avoid conflict with the Saturday World Series game, offers the Trojans a good opportunity. While they meet an unranked but highly respectable rival, two of the Top Ten teams will be idle this weekend and others can't gain much by beating low-rated opponents.

Southern California fell from first to eighth in The Associated Press poll after losing 17-12 to Oklahoma last Saturday. Chances are USC will be hotter tonight.

Michigan State's young team isn't considered a top contender in the always-tough Big Ten. But Coach Duffy Daugherty's Spartans romped to a 31-0 victory over North Carolina in their opener. USC is given a one-touchdown edge.

In other games tonight, Miami of Florida, riddled by a virus this week after a bounce-back victory over Purdue, plays two-time loser Tulane at New Orleans. Boston College visits Detroit, and The Citadel plays George Washington in a Southern Conference game.

Top-ranked Oklahoma and Wisconsin, No. 4, have open dates this weekend. Alabama, No. 2, after impressive victories over Georgia and Tulane, plays Vanderbilt at Nashville Saturday night and Texas, No. 3, has a night game against Oklahoma State. They may improve their statistics but aren't likely to gain much prestige.

Navy Battles Michigan

Other Saturday pairings for the ranked teams: Northwestern, No. 5, at Illinois; Navy, No. 6, at Michigan; Georgia Tech, No. 7, at Louisiana State at night; Pittsburgh, No. 9, at home against California and Mississippi, No. 10, at Houston.

The season's first "bowl" game, also the game of the week on national television, pairs Duke and Maryland of the Atlantic Coast Conference in the Tobacco Bowl at Richmond, Va. Duke is 2-0 and Maryland 0-2.

There are some prime sectional matchups. Among them are Air Force-Southern Methodist, Army-Minnesota, Rice-Penn State, Iowa-Washington, Ohio State-Indiana, Kansas-Wyoming, Notre Dame-Purdue, Iowa State-Nebraska, Texas Christian-Arkansas, Kentucky-Auburn, Mississippi State-Tennessee, North Carolina State-Clemson, Utah-New Mexico, Dartmouth-Penn, UCLA-Stanford, Holy Cross-Syracuse and Princeton-Columbia.

6 NFL Contests On Tap Sunday

Steelers Favored To Beat Browns; Bears Are Picked

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The "big one" in pro football this weekend is the Saturday night battle at Cleveland of the two unbeaten in the Eastern Conference of the National Football League, the Pittsburgh Steelers and Cleveland Browns.

The Chicago Bears, undefeated leaders of the Western Conference, will be at home to the Baltimore Colts in one of the six Sunday games in the NFL. Green Bay, trailing by a game, takes on the winless Los Angeles Rams at home.

Y. A. Tittle and the New York Giants hope to close in on the Browns or Steelers by thumping Washington at Washington. Surprising Minnesota is at home to the strong St. Louis Cards in another big game.

Dallas and Philadelphia, two disappointing clubs that have not won, meet at Philadelphia. Detroit, loser of its last two, entertains San Francisco making its first start under new coach Jack Christiansen.

In the American Football League, the New York Jets defend their Eastern Division lead at the Polo Grounds against the Boston Patriots in a Saturday night game. Oakland will be at Buffalo on Saturday night. On Sunday it will be unbeaten San Diego at Denver and Houston at Kansas City.

We're still struggling with a 15-14 record. So here goes. All games Sunday unless otherwise indicated.

NFL

Pittsburgh 20, Cleveland 16—Saturday. That Steeler rush line may be tough for the Browns. It could be a field goal duel between Lou Michaels and Lou Groza.

St. Louis 24, Minnesota 17—The Cards' good pass defense, plus the throwing of Charlie Johnson and the running of Joe Childress and Bill Triplett make the difference. New York 35, Washington 28—The Redskins' pass defense still is leaky.

Green Bay 38, Los Angeles 10—Jim Taylor is a doubtful starter but the Packers have too much for the rebuilding Rams.

Dallas 24, Philadelphia 21—Another upset here with the Cowboys finally clicking like they should.

AFL
Buffalo 20, Oakland 14—Saturday. The Bills cannot go on losing forever. Jack Kemp is reported ready for duty.

New York 17, Boston 13—Saturday. The Jets are steamed up to reverse that 3-14 opening game defeat.

Kansas City 21, Houston 17—a rematch of last year's title game. San Diego 24, Denver 14—The Chargers are moving with a 3-0 record.

Fight Results

MANILA—Johnny Jamito, 124, Philippines, outpointed Veerand Charenmuang, 124, Thailand, 10. MONTREAL—Peter Schmidt, 146, Toronto, and Joey Durelle, 146, TroisRivieres, Que., drew, 12.

MIAMI, Fla.—Tommy Dennis, 145, Tampa, outpointed Harry Belafonte, 147, Moultrie, Ga., 8.

Rudolph Fires 68; 3 Pros Tied At 69

Rudolph Leads By 1 Stroke In Whitemarsh Golf Tourney

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mason Rudolph doesn't mind being a front runner.

The 29-year-old Tennessean led the $125,000 Whitemarsh Open Golf Tournament today by a stroke after the first 18 of the 72-hole competition.

"I'm happy to take the lead anytime," he said Thursday after completing a 34-33-67 round, five under par for the 6,807-yard Whitemarsh Valley Country Club course.

"I like to get the lead especially in a rich tournament like this one because the prize money list is so long," he said. "If you fall you still are in the money."

Rudolph obviously wasn't counting the $26,000 first prize with only a one stroke lead over stocky Phil Rodgers of Perfidio Bay, Fla., and with the likes of Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Jack Nicklaus and Julius Boros not too far back.

Palmer, his right shoulder still aching with bursitis, shot a 70, Player and Nicklaus 71s, and Boros a 73.

Just behind Rudolph and Rodgers, tied at 69, were the veteran Gene Littler and two comparative unknowns, Rod Funseth of Spokane, Wash., and Jerry Pisano of Radnor in suburban Philadelphia.

Clearance. We have over 100 Used Cars on the lot. From 1963's to everything but

Here's how we're going to find our Lucky Customer. We make a duplicate copy of each sales slip for a used car. We will give the customer who buys a used car his copy, and then drop the duplicate copy into a box.

The morning after we have Sale No. 100.
We are going to shake up that box well and then hold it high while some customer in the garage puts his hand in and selects one of the duplicate copies of a sales contract. We will take the name from that sales contract and then send a salesman

A word from THERON at the Country Store

Our IGA supervisor was in the other day and gave us a bit of good news. He told us he was at a meeting and he was informed that Theron's Country Store had the biggest increase in business, dollar wise of all the IGA stores served out of their warehouse. More than 150 IGA stores are included.

Thank you good people for making this possible. I thought we were good but I didn't know we were that good.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Health Questions And Answers

Dr. Brandstadt streptococcus in his nasal passages.

It is unlikely that transmission would occur through handling a postcard or letter, and it would not be transmitted by an adult who had the disease unless he was a carrier.

The issue is not as severe as it was many years ago. Penicillin has done much to limit the duration of the illness, prevent the development of the carrier state and control the spread of the disease. Isolation of patients, formerly required for four weeks, is now required for only one week. The disinfection of bedding is readily accomplished by thorough cleaning and sunning. All in all, the disease is no longer a serious cause of death.

Q—For many years I have had attacks of blurred vision with zig-zagging semicircles in front of my eyes. This lasts about half an hour and is followed by a severe headache. What causes this and is there any remedy?

A—You have given a perfect description of migraine. In some persons the episode of blurred vision is followed not only by a severe one-sided headache, but also by vomiting. Heredity or allergy may be factors in the cause, but in many victims no cause can be found. A relatively new drug, methysergide (Sansert), is effective in preventing this type of headache. It can be obtained only on a doctor's prescription.

Q—For the past few years I have been taking tablets daily to control spasms in my chest muscles. What could cause these spasms? My doctor says there's nothing wrong with my heart.

A—Muscle spasms can occur anywhere in the body, but are not often seen in the chest muscles. If your doctor found nothing seriously wrong with you, nervous tension probably plays a large part in causing your spasms. If after several years of taking medicine to control them the spasms are still present, I think you should omit the tablets for a while and see whether they were really doing you any good. You can always go back to them again if necessary.

Q—Where can I obtain some pamphlets on the venereal diseases?

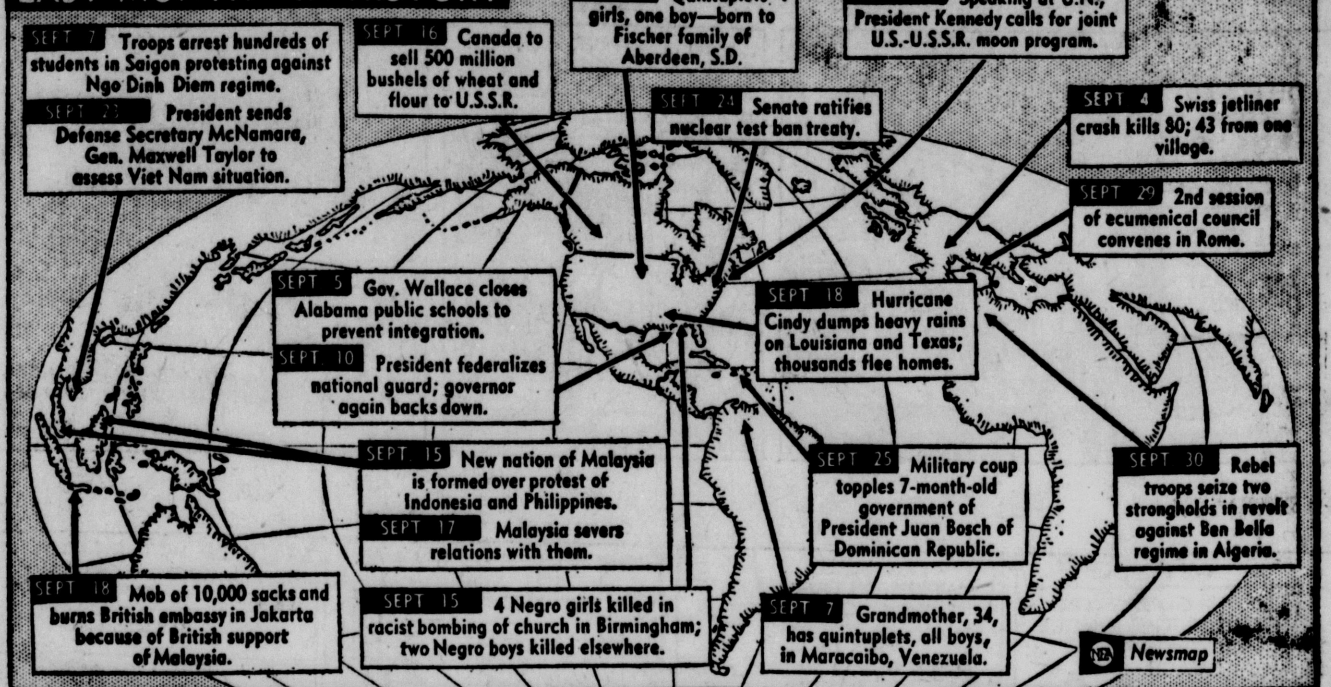

A—This is a subject of ever-increasing importance. You can get the information you want from the American Social Health Assn. (1790 Broadway, New York, N. Y. 10019). Also the United States Public Health Service puts out pamphlets which you can get through your city, county or state health department.

GUN WOUNDS FATAL

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP)—Gun-shot wounds received in an accident at his home in Conneaut a week ago took the life of the Rev. Henry W. Steven, 78, Thursday night. The Rev. Mr. Steven, a retired Baptist minister, was shooting woodchuck on his front lawn Sept. 26 when he stumbled, his .22-caliber rifle discharged and two bullets entered his body.

Through body movements and facial expressions, humans can make some 700,000 different, meaningful gestures.

LAST MONTH - IN HISTORY

Celebrities

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—What are celebrities really like?

After interviewing more than 1,000 famous folk in the last 20 years, I've concluded they differ from ordinary people chiefly in having a greater single-mindedness of purpose.

When they want something they fight harder to get it, they don't let other interests divert them from their goal.

They are gifted or cursed—depending on how you see it—with a greater self-awareness than most of us show.

They are something like the reflection in a Coney Island mirror—diminished here, greatly exaggerated there.

Celebrities are alike in one respect. All dread anonymity and fear failure. Success in time becomes a monkey on their back.

It is a narcotic which they require often in ever larger doses.

That is why big league performers—whether they are baseball players, business tycoons, crooners, or theater, film or television idols—usually have a clique around them. They surround themselves with sycophants because they need constantly to be assured, "You're the greatest, pal."

All celebrities are actors, whether they are consciously so or not. Had they gone on the stage, both Gen. George S. Patton and Gen. Douglas MacArthur undoubtedly would have wound up as matinee idols. So would Gen. Charles de Gaulle, Sen. Everett Dirksen of Illinois, and probably President John F. Kennedy. All had or have a built-in sense of drama and a magical sense of timing.

Not all celebrities are interesting up close. Academic celebrities tend to be boring, famous doctors pontifical, actresses shallow. Scientists are jealous, but hell hath no rivalry like two long-haired poets fighting for attention at the same cocktail party.

As for opera stars, each is sure all the others sing like frogs with the asthma. Most novelists praise no other novelist until he is safely dead.

Some celebrities are unbelievably generous, others laughably stingy. If Frank Sinatra likes you he may send you a limousine, handwrapped for Christmas. On the other hand, another veteran star has been known to try to get his hotel to cut down the price of his breakfast because he ate only one of the two muffins room service sent up on a tray.

The most pukeish celebrity I ever met was actor Bob Mitchem, who thinks it's all pretty zany; the most pathetic—Marilyn Monroe, who was destroyed by applause.

But the celebrity I admire most is Gen. Omar Nelson Bradley, a down-to-earth man who never let fame or fortune turn his head—and would blush to be called a celebrity at all.

Clerk of Courts Reports $5,606 For September

LISBON — Carl L. Stacey, clerk of courts, reported a total of $5,606.67 was paid the county treasurer in fees collected in common pleas court and the car title department at the Courthouse during September.

The clerk paid $5,443.14 to the state treasurer from the collection of sales and use taxes, and $36,320.59 was paid the state treasurer from the collection of the new dealers' tax, the county receiving $421.84 for its one per cent poundage.

The state also received $1,096.20 for car title fees.

There were 57 civil cases filed in common pleas court and the title department issued 3,048 auto titles, 46 duplicate titles, 576 memorandums, one duplicate memorandum, 1,114 notation of liens, 1,037 cancellations of liens and 1,089 acknowledgments.

There were 295 titles issued for new vehicles during the month which represents $915,870, Stacey said.

ORE SHIPMENTS HIGHER

CLEVELAND (AP) — September iron ore shipments on the Upper Lakes were 15 per cent higher than the similar year-ago period but stockpiles were down, the American Iron Ore Association reports.

Shipments from eight U.S. ports last month totaled 8,066,128 gross tons, the association reported Thursday, compared with 6,964,610 tons in September 1962.

The season total to Oct. 1 now stands at 43,060,878 tons, compared with 44,534,465 last season to Oct. 1, but shipping started earlier than last year. Stocks of ore at iron and steel plants as of Sept. 1 totaled 58,522,173 tons, compared with 65,635,450 tons a year ago.

Hearings Set For Two In Bank Holdup

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Preliminary hearings have been set for two of the three men held under $50,000 bonds on charges of bank robbery in the $31,754 holdup of the Union Savings & Trust Co.'s West Market Street branch here. The third man waived a hearing.

The FBI said all but $2.20 of the loot in Wednesday's robbery was recovered. A bank official indicated the $2.20 could be an error in the audit.

U.S. Commissioner Henry C. Robinson set Oct. 18 hearings for Willie Walton, 28, and Roy Dean Gilford, 39, both of Warren, Eddie Gray Slade, 30, of Niles waived a hearing when the trio was arraigned before Robinson Thursday in Youngstown.

Slade and Walton were arrested at their homes a few hours after the robbery and Gilford was picked up Thursday. The FBI said three pistols in a cloth sack and a shopping bag full of money were found under the hood of Walton's car parked at his home.

what YOU should know about
FLU

Nobody knows whether influenza will strike this year in the same epidemic proportions it reached in the fall and winter of 1957-58. However we must be on guard against a disease that is ever imminent and can prove so costly.

PROTECTION IS SIMPLE
Have your physician give you the simple protective vaccine that can safeguard you against the discomfort of influenza and possible serious interruption in your work.

This vaccine usually takes from 4 to 6 weeks after injection to produce maximum immunity, which is believed to last from 6 to 12 months.

MANY SYMPTOMS
Influenza may be accompanied by weakness, lassitude, chills, muscular pain, headache, fever, (usually from 101 to 103 degrees) nausea, vomiting, sore throat or cough. When any or all appear, go home and to bed, then check with your doctor.

GET PROMPT TREATMENT
Bed rest, aspirin and plenty of fluids are effective measures, but your doctor should be consulted at once so that he can be on the look-out for complications such as pneumonia.

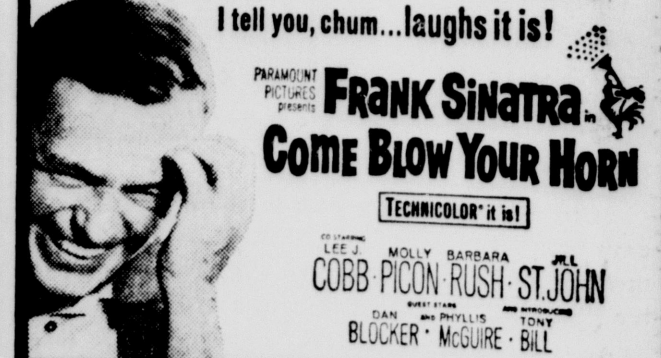

BE PREPARED
Check with us for medicine cabinet needs such as a thermometer, aspirin, mouth washes, gargles, etc. We will be glad to give you professional guidance in making your selections.
